  Syncfusion, the company behind BoldDesk, has been helping developers worldwide build powerful line-of-business software for over 20 years. Our flagship component suite includes over 1,700 UI widgets and frameworks that help reduce time and complexity when developing mobile, web, and desktop applications.
 Over the past two decades, we have learned quite a bit about providing an optimal support experience on a global scale for complex use cases. Our support system is backed by software systems that track every detail accurately. Nothing is left to chance. Customers appreciate that every detail is tracked to completion. Such actions let them know that we care not just with words in a support policy but in actual practice,
